HAWAIIAN LAWS

RELATING TO NATURALIZATION, OR OATH OF ALLEGIANCE, DENIZATION, AND PERSONS HOLDING OFFICES UNDER THE GOVERNMENT.

On the 1st of August, 1874, An Act is passed "To provide for the taking of the oath of allegiance by persons in the employ of the Hawaiian Government." This Act is amended August 3rd, 1876, reads as follows:

SEC. 1.—From and after the passage of this Act, every person of foreign birth who may be appointed to any office of profit or emolument under the Government of this Kingdom, shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the oath of allegiance in manner and form prescribed by Sections 430 and 431 of the Civil Code.

SEC. 2.—Every person now holding any office of profit or emolument under the Government of this Kingdom, who shall not already have taken such oath as aforesaid, and who shall neglect or refuse to take such oath within three months from the passage of this Act, shall be deemed to have resigned his office, which shall become vacant at the expiration of such period.

SEC. 3.—The said oath may be taken and subscribed by any person not resident on the island of Oahu, before any judge of a Court of Record, who shall immediately forward the same to the Minister of the Interior.

Sections 430 and 431 above referred to, of the Civil Code, read as follows:

SEC. 430.—The oath of allegiance shall be administered as aforesaid, shall be as follows:

The undersigned, a native of _____, being duly sworn, upon his oath, declares that he will support the Constitution and Laws of the Hawaiian Islands, and bear true allegiance to His Majesty _____, the King.

Subscribed and sworn to this _____ day of _____, A.D. 18____, before me.

SEC. 431.—The oath of allegiance shall always be subscribed by the person so naturalized, be sworn to in the form most obligatory upon his conscience, and the Jurat thereof shall be subscribed by the Minister of the Interior, or his Chief Clerk.

On the 27th of July, 1882, the following Act was passed amending Sections 428 and 429 of the Civil Code, viz:

SEC. 1.—That Sections 428 and 429 of the Civil Code be, and the same are hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Section 428.—The Minister of the Interior, with the approval of the King, shall have the superintendence and direction of the Naturalization of Foreigners.

Section 429.—The said Minister, with the approval of the King, shall have the power in person, upon the application of any alien foreigner who shall have resided within the Kingdom five years or more next preceding such application, stating his intention to become a permanent resident of the Kingdom, to administer the oath of allegiance to such foreigner, if satisfied that it will be for the good of the Kingdom, and that such foreigner owns without encumbrance taxable real estate within the Kingdom, and is not of immoral character, nor a refugee from the justice of some other country, nor a deserting sailor, marine, soldier or officer."

SEC. 2.—This Act shall become a law from and after the date of its approval, and all laws and parts of laws in contravention herewith, are hereby repealed.

Sections 428 and 429 of the Civil Code before being amended as above, read as follows:

SEC. 428.—The Minister of the Interior shall have the superintendence and direction of the naturalization of foreigners.

SEC. 429.—The said Minister shall have the power, either in person or through his Chief Clerk, upon the application of any alien foreigner, stating his intention to become a permanent resident of the Kingdom, to administer the oath of allegiance to such foreigner, if satisfied that it will be for the good of the Kingdom, and that such foreigner is not of immoral character, nor a refugee from the justice of some other country, nor a deserting sailor, marine, soldier or officer.

The following provisions of the Civil Code are still in force, viz:

SEC. 433.—It shall be competent for His Majesty to confer upon any alien resident abroad, or temporarily resident in this Kingdom, letters patent of denization, conferring upon such alien, without abjuration of allegiance, all the rights privileges and immunities of a native. Said letters patent shall render the denizen in all respects accountable to the laws of this Kingdom, and impose upon him the like fealty to the King, as if he had been naturalized as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 434.—The fee for administering the oath of allegiance, subscribing the jurat, and granting certificate of the same, shall be five dollars.

Kahului Notes.

Our Kahului correspondent sends us the following:

The barkentine Uncle John, Capt. Nanson, arrived on the 15th from Eureka, with a cargo of redwood lumber for the H. C. C.

The bark Ferris S. Thompson, Capt. Potter, sailed on the 18th for San Francisco. She took 6,469 bags sugar, weighing 755,468 pounds, valued at $47,297.15.

The following vessels are expected at Kahului: Brig Hazard, Capt. Miller, from San Francisco; Schr. Claus Spreckels, Capt. Cousins, from Eureka.

We heard of a man offering a fine garden hose for $5 the other day. Whose was it?

The mail for San Francisco per steamer Suez, closes at the Post-office to-morrow at 3 p.m.

POLICE COURT sat Friday, tried 4 or 5 civil cases of no importance, and as many more postponed till next civil session. Two opium cases, 4 drunks, 1 burglary, 1 common nuisance and 2 assault and battery at the Police Court on Saturday.

The stmr. Iwalani, from Kona and Kau, will be due to-morrow morning.

A party of Chinamen living on Maunakea street, finding one of their number dying from Chinese dropsy on Saturday, put him out on the street and left him to die. They then deserted.

LINES ON THE BULLETIN.

The BULLETIN is now all the rage. Its subscriptions are heavier and heavier. The Kenyon may well fill the page. There's another who's still (J.G.) Clever. P.H.D.R.

APPROPOS to our remarks on Fruit Importation, we were invited on Thursday to sample some Bartlett Pears which had arrived by the Suez. Nearly half a case was emptied in our presence without finding a single damaged one. Each of them was in splendid condition and we attribute this to the special care taken in packing them.

WHILE the Cristoforo Colombo was in port it was customary to see some of her crew on shore every morning between 5 and 7 purchasing fresh fruit, vegetables, meat, &c. A day or two before she sailed the purchasing party were on shore as usual, and one of the sailors, after buying some vegetables from a Chinaman tendered him a Peruvian bank-bill of the value of 10 cents. John, from the size of the bill, thought it must be of large value, and gave the sailor 20 dollars and some odd cents in change. Next day, however, he found out his mistake and went on board to demand his money. Although afforded every opportunity for inspection he failed to find the "gay deceiver," and now he is left lamenting.

WE are sorry to learn to that Mr. Furneaux has sent away some of his pictures, recording the eruption of Mauna Loa, and will send more by the next steamer. We understand that they are sent to New York. The Ministry felt compelled to make a big effort for the purchase of the portrait of the late King Lunalilo on account of its national value. What then do they mean to do in regard to these pictures which are of equal national value? Will they allow foreigners in other countries to possess national pictures like these and let the nation go without them?

FORT street at its intersection by Merchant street, was disfigured all day yesterday with two barrels and pieces of lumber and bricks. Suppose that another runaway had come that way and figure to yourself the catastrophe? Who is responsible for these careless acts.

A RUNAWAY occurred on Hotel street about 12 o'clock noon on Saturday. The horse got away and left the carriage behind. Nobody hurt: express slightly damaged.

WE learn that 30 shares of the East Maui Plantation stock were sold on Saturday by W. O. Smith & Co. at $300 a share, cash. Moral: Advertise in the BULLETIN.

WE learn by the courtesy of the Post-office officials, that 1,222 letters were received by the Suez, and 457 pounds weight of newspapers.

ON Saturday, His Majesty the King, in Privy Council assembled, signified his pleasure in approving the nomination of Mr. J. S. Walker by the Minister of Finance for the new post of Auditor-General. Mr. Walker's commission takes effect from next November. Nothing else of importance transpired.

ON Saturday evening, at 7:30 p.m. our American fellow-citizens gave a surprise serenade to His Excellency R. M. Daggett, the new U. S. Commissioner. They formed quite a large procession with torches, and, with the assistance of the band, made the air lively with strains of patriotic melody. On arriving at the Hotel it was found that the bruits of their coming had preceded them, for the balconies were filled with the "fair women and brave men" who had come to do honor to their country's representative. Mr. Daggett made a truly eloquent and graceful speech of thanks for the honor and the spirit of welcome displayed. Mr. McKinley and Dr. McGrew said a few words in response to calls from the serenaders and the proceedings terminated. Mr. Daggett will be able to learn from this how not only our American fellow-citizens are prepared to appreciate him, but also that all nationalities are tinged with the same spirit as the personnel of the demonstration showed.

THE Band will give a concert at the Hotel this evening, commencing at 7:30 P.M.

THE Great Credit Sale, at the store of Messrs. H. Hackfeld & Co., will be continued this day at 10 A.M., of wines, spirits, ales, cigars, etc.

WE call attention to the resume of the laws on naturalization in another column.

HER Majesty the Queen, "the mother of her people," paid a visit to the Branch Leper Hospital at Kakaako. She was genuinely welcomed.

THE vacations are nearly over and our people are returning.

THE attendance at Fort Street Church yesterday was exceedingly large. Mr. Cruzan looks as if his holiday had done him good.

3 drunks, 1 careless driving, 2 opium smoking on Saturday, and 1 assault and battery and 2 Sabbath-breaking on Sunday at the Police Court.
